Customer Reviews

This book was a great one for diversity in the classroom. I used this book for student teaching in a preschool classroom and they just loved it! It was a great interactive book the kids just loved being part of!K. Alberici

ALL KINDS OF PEOPLE by Sheri Safran,illustrated by Emma Damon is an interesting children's book. A lift the flap book. Very interesting and age appropriate for children ages 3 and up. Would be great for teachers,informative,people have different ideas,colors,sizes and should get along. Great for small children.Received for an honest review from the publisher.RATING: 5HEAT RATING: NONE(CHILDREN)REVIEWED BY: AprilR, My Book Addiction and More/My Book Addiction Reviews

My 4 year old likes this book and the flaps. It's good to get some conversation started, including arguing about 'white people' not being white, 'black people' not being black, and 'red hair' being orange. The particular book I got was in fair condition, which was disappointing for the cost.
