Customer Reviews

If your kids love the Lego star wars miniseries a out Jek 14, as mine do, this book is great. It's a faiitfful retelling of the TV show, including some of the more sly/funny bits.

Its exciting and funny. It has 3 episodes in it and its fun to read.The words from my 9 y/o son.

The publisher must be under the impression -- and may be correct -- that if you brand a book with Lego and Star Wars, the actual words used in the book simply do not matter. The writing is abysmal (at times, I wondered if the text were computer-generated), the supposed humor is not funny in the least, and the pictures (being pictures of Legos) are often hard to interpret. The plot is barely sketched out in rudimentary and clunky sentences. Scenes shift without warning or explanation. The book is stuffed with proper nouns (character names, planets, etc.) yet the relationship among the people and places is never explained. Characters' motives and actions are inscrutable. Your child must already be intimately familiar with the Star Wars milieu, or he/she will have no chance of understanding this book.

my son loves it and enjoys the toy. he has already read the book many times over. thanks for making a great book.

Great book for my Lego Star Wars fan. My son just loves the book. It has all the nice pictures from the movie in it and the story is easy to follow.

My 4 year old love reading this book. The story is cute. And enjoys watching the Lego Star War dvd too.

My 9 yr old loved it!

Good for kids.
