Customer Reviews

I give one of these to each of the great-grandchildren for Christmas. They enjoy playing 'Try and Stump Grandma' over the phone during the year. (p.s. I lose a lot, but I sure don't care because they have so much fun trying.)

This is the perfect book for a kid who asks questions all day long. Now I just say "Look it up in your almanac." Colorful pages and full of information that my 10 year old likes to pour thru, now I'm being quizzed on trivia that he's learned from it. His favorite book.

My 9-year-old loves to read this book at bedtime. I like to hear him read it to me. Usually, my response is, "Wow! I didn't know that!" I think he is learning a lot from reading this, and it's just the beginning of a general healthy curiosity toward life.

A great fact book for kids or adults who don't read good. It has all of the animals and countries and stuff and even tells about Presidents. 3 thumbs up!
