Customer Reviews

The Good: -Inexpensive, only $3.75 each when using 's 4-for-3 promotion. -Excellent maps -The Drama of the Bible in Six Acts introduction is really quite awesome, great for a new Bible reader. -The biggest sell point for me - there are short introductions for some of the chapters, but they are careful to give historical data without sweeping theological claims. For example, in the introduction to Revelation, it does not comment on the theology of Revelation, only the structure. I was concerned that there would be some sort of end-times theology or rapture theology. It is missing it completely, which is awesome. The church can teach the particular theologies without worrying about contradictions within the bibles they're offering.The Neutral: -The cover is very lightweight. I ordered one book, but I'm still planning on ordering around 40-52 more.The Bad: -? I have not yet observed anything that I am upset about. These are good Bibles.

THE BIBLE IS GREAT; AND YOU CAN'T BEAT THE PRICE FOR A NIV BIBLE; HOWEVER, IT IS

NOT EVEN CLOSE TO LARGE PRINT. IT IS VERY "DISPOSABLE" WITH CHEAP STOCK AND A VERY FLIMSY COVER BUT ITS CONTENT IS SPECTACULAR;) NOT MEANING TO BE CRITICAL BUT IT IS IMPORTANT THAT YOU DON'T BUY IT EXPECTING A LARGE PRINT BIBLE.

The print in this bible is just normal size so if you are buying it because it says larger print think again you will not be happy with it. The bible is great print to small.

print isn't all that much larger than regular. decided to keep it since the pages are clear white and makes the text very readable. if looking for larger print due to worsening eyesight...this may not be ideal.

Not a big print Bible.

While the print IS larger, it's not darker and still hard to read. I read it 'cause it's all I have, but if you can henceforth make the print larger AND darker, that would be better for us with older eyes. Judi Gitel

I wasn't able to take a "peek inside" the book so I really didn't know if the larger print was large enough. So I took a chance and ordered it anyway. Unfortunately the print was not as large as I expected. It was for my 100 year old Aunt. Disappointed

Great price. Beautiful Cover. Easy to read. Would recommend for the price. Not as large as some large print. But fine for me. Thank you.
